R.BASANT, J

B.A.No.6640 of 2007

Dated this the 13th day of November, 2007

ORDER

Application for anticipatory bail. The petitioner apprehends that he may be arrested on the allegation that he has committed non bailable offences against one Devi, his second wife. It was the second marriage of both the spouses. The said Devi has a relative who is an official of the police. It is, in these circumstances, that the petitioner apprehended that he may be arrested on the allegation that he has committed non bailable offences. The marriage had taken place only on 25.3.07.

2. The learned Public Prosecutor after taking instructions submits that the petitioner is not required to be arrested in connection with any crime by the Hill Palace police, Tripunithura or the Marayur police at Idukki. The apprehension of the petitioner that he will be arrested by the respondents is, in these circumstances, without any basis. The learned Public Prosecutor's submissions are taken note of and hereby recorded. The learned Public Prosecutor submits that if in future, the petitioner were to be arrested on the allegation that he has committed any non bailable offences against the said Devi, his second wife after this date, prior permission of this Court shall be taken before such arrest is effected.

3. I record the submissions of the learned Public Prosecutor. I accept the submissions. It is now evident that the apprehension of the petitioner is without any basis.

4. This application for anticipatory bail is accordingly dismissed as agreed.
